The mariner brave in his bark on the wave,
 May laugh at the walls round a kingly slave;
 And the one whose lot is the desert spot,
 Has no dread of an envious foe in his cot;
 The thrall and state at the palace gate,
 Are what my spirit has learnt to hate;
 I burn with glee, for I love to see,
 The path of any thing that's free.

The Sea, The Sea, The o — pen Sea! The blue, the fresh, the ev — er free, the ever ev — er free! Without a mark, without a bound, It runneth the earth's wide re — gions round, It plays with the clouds, it mocks the skies, Or like a cradled creature lies, Or like a cradled creature lies. I'm on the Sea!

I'm on the Sea! I am where I would ever be, With the blue above, and the blue below, And silence where-so e'er I go. If a storm should come, and a wake the deep, What matter? what matter?

3

I shall ride and sleep, What matter? what matter? I shall ride and sleep.

2

I love, O how I love to ride
 On the fierce, foaming, bursting tide.
 When every mad wave drowns the moon,
 Or whistles aloft his tempest tune,
 And tells how goeth the world below,
 And why the sou' west blast doth blow!
 I never was on the dull tame shore
 But I loved the great sea more and more,
 And backwards flew to her billowy breast,
 Like a bird that seeketh its mother's nest;
 And a mother she was and is to me,
 For I was born on the open sea.

3

The waves were white, and red the morn,
 In the noisy hour when I was born;
 And the whale it whistled, the porpoise roll'd,
 And the dolphins bared their backs of gold;
 And never was heard such an outcry wild
 As welcomed to life the Ocean child.
 I have lived, since then, in calm and strife,
 Full fifty summers a rover's life,
 With wealth to spend, and a power to range,
 But never have sought or sighed for change;
 And death, whenever he come to me,
 Shall come on the wide unbounding sea.

Detailed description: This is a musical score for guitar, consisting of a vocal line and a guitar accompaniment line. The music is in 2/4 time and the key signature has one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked 'AFETTUOSO'. The score begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics are: 'The tangled briar creep-eth, It hath for many a day, Up - - on the grave where sleepeth Fondly cherish'd Mary Gray. My cherish'd Mary Gray, My cherish'd Mary'. The guitar accompaniment features a mix of chords and single notes, with some triplets indicated by a '3' over the notes. The score ends with a '3 pos.' marking, likely indicating three positions for the guitar.

Gray, How quiet - -ly she sleepeth there, My cherish'd Mary Gray.

The little birds they love it, -
 They will not keep away;
 But sadly sing above it;
 For they mourn my Mary Gray.
 They mourn my Mary Gray, -
 They mourn my Mary Gray, -
 For she was kind to ev'ry thing, -
 My gentle Mary Gray.

3

Her heart and mine together
 Were knit like ray to ray.
 All time had summer weather
 While I knew my Mary Gray.
 I knew my Mary Gray, -
 I knew my Mary Gray, -
 Sweet blossoms grew before her steps, -
 My lovely Mary Gray.

4

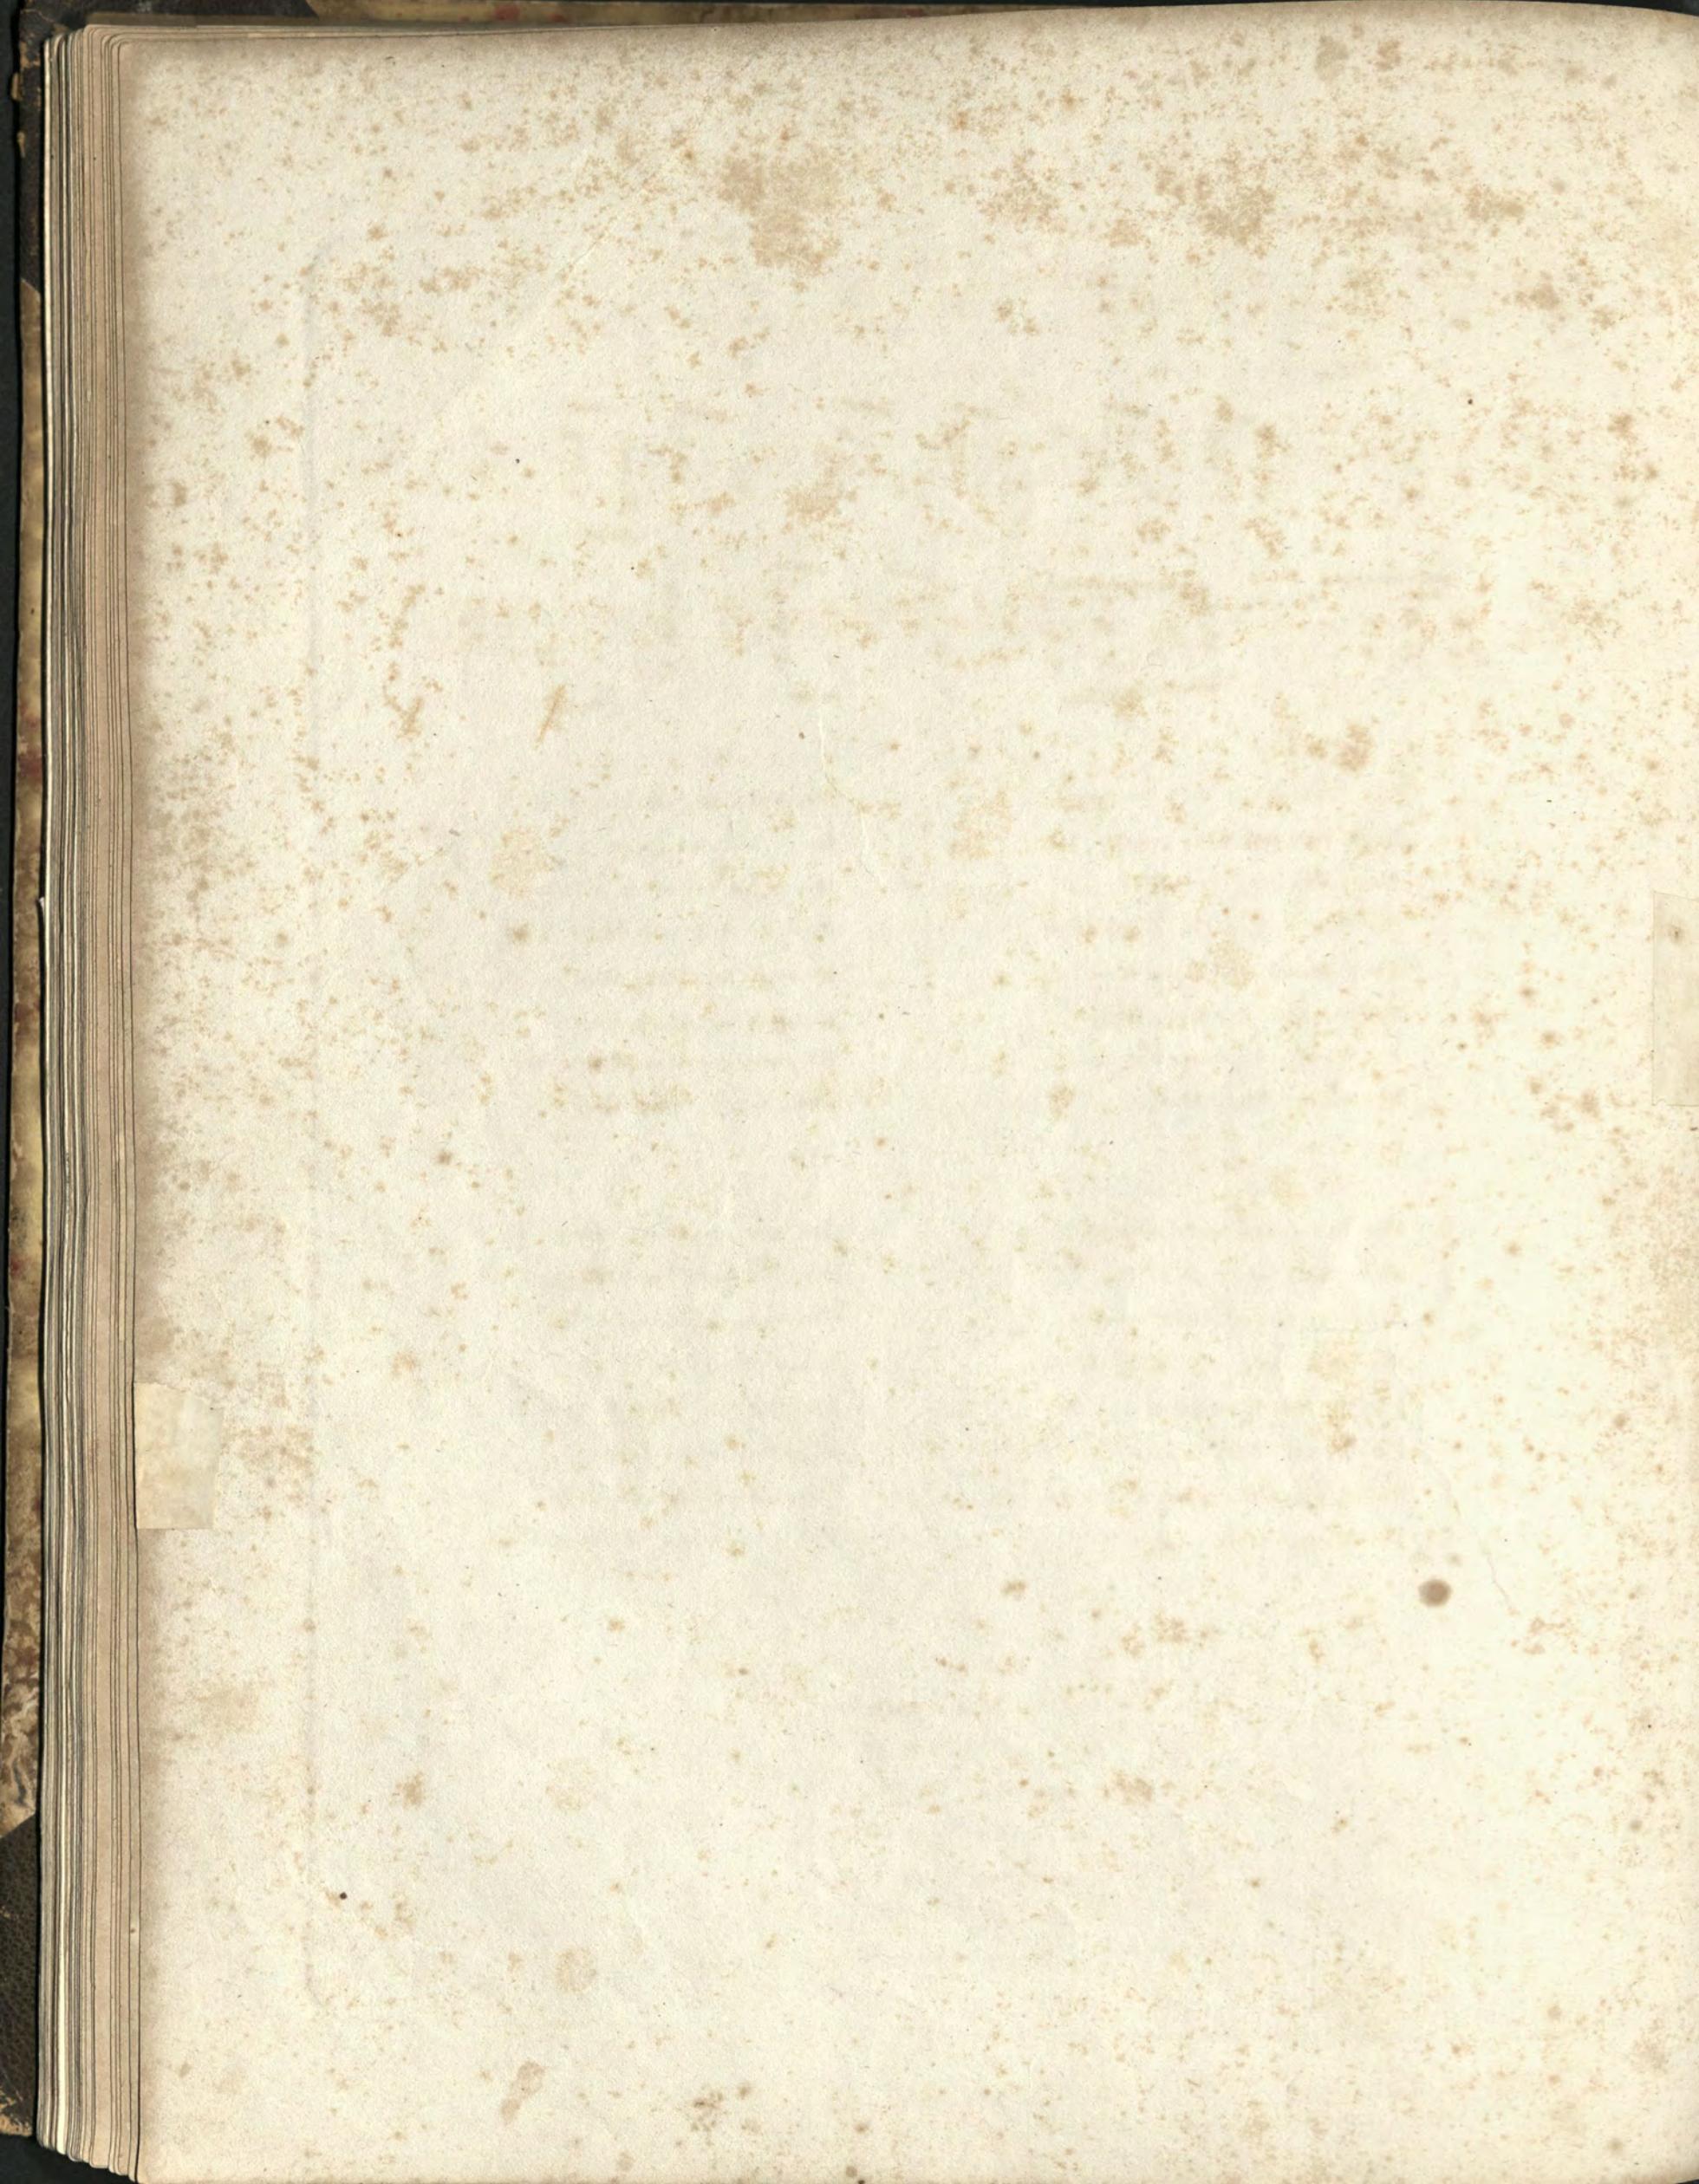

But death so cold and cruel
 He cross'd our happy way:
 He sigh'd for such a jewel,
 And he stole my Mary Gray.
 He stole my Mary Gray, -
 He stole my Mary Gray, -
 He never own'd a purer gem
 Than lovely Mary Gray.

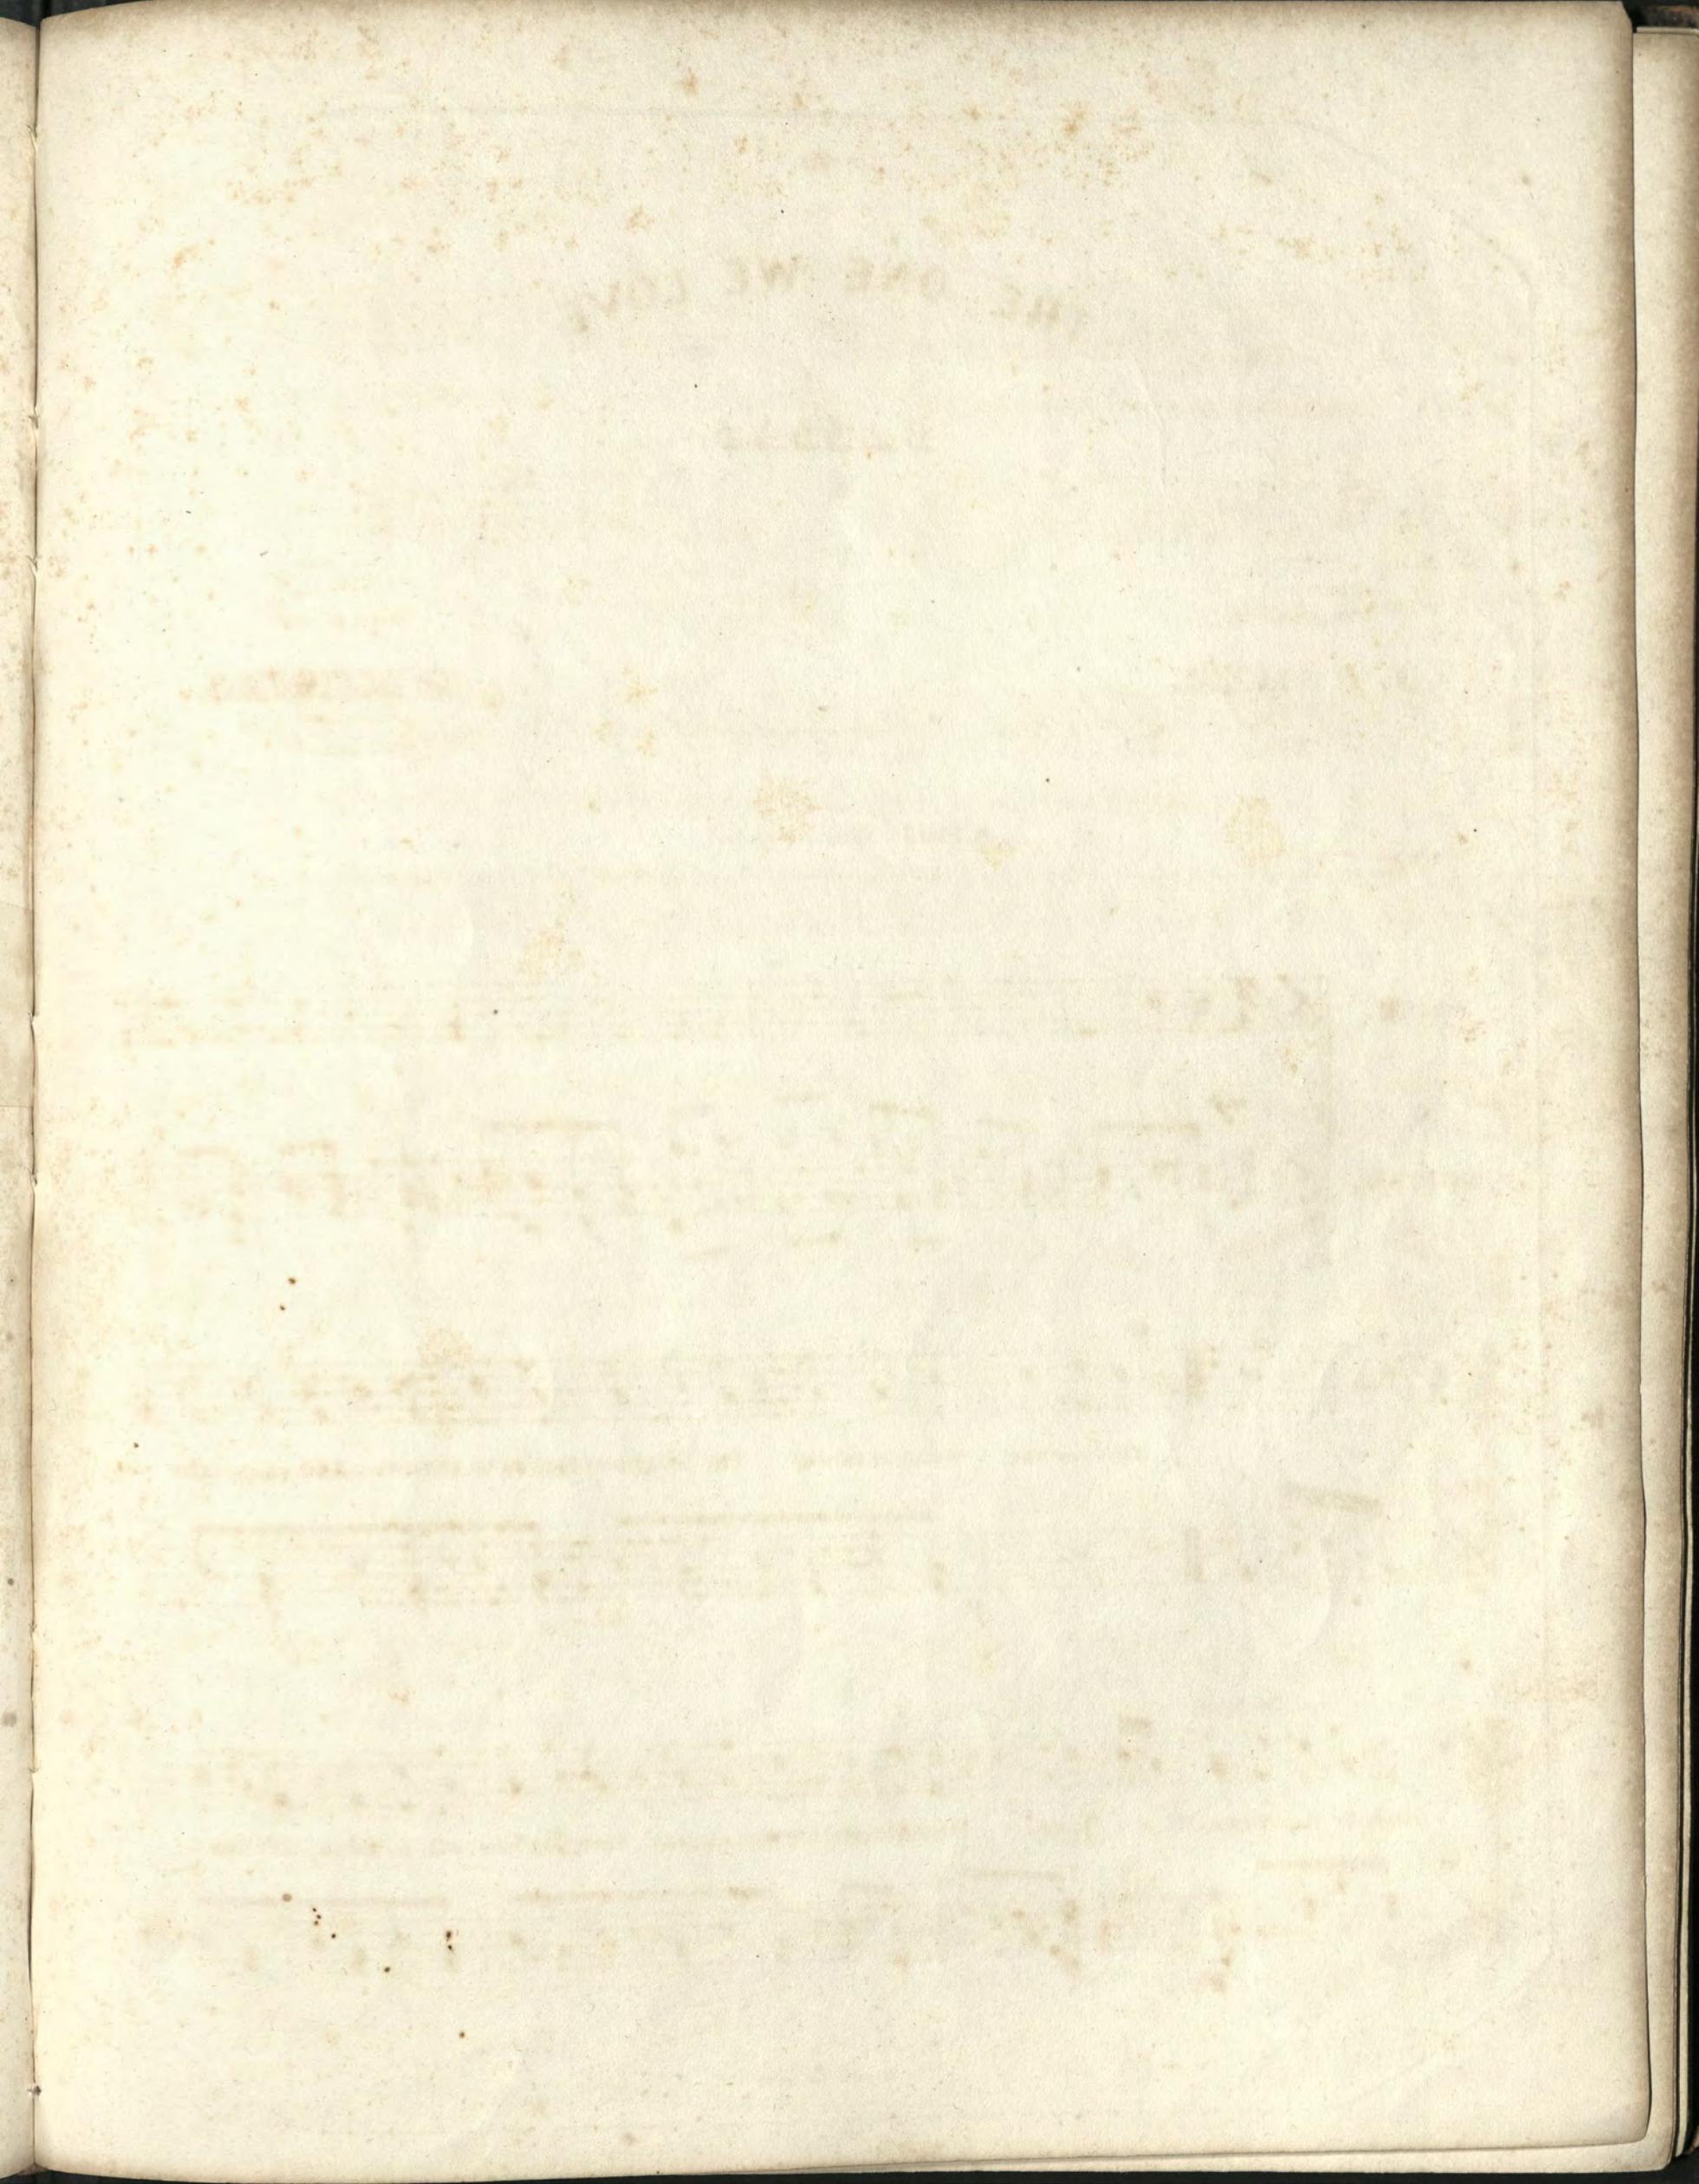

5

And now in yonder valley,
 Where bloom the flowers of may,
 The sighing breezes dally
 Round the grave of Mary Gray.
 The grave of Mary Gray, -
 Of pretty Mary Gray, -
 The sighing breezes dally
 Round the grave of Mary Gray.

6

Heart-broken, - sad, and lonely
 I tread life's weary way;
 My ear finds music only
 In the name of Mary Gray.
 Ah, me! my Mary Gray, -
 Ah, me! my Mary Gray, -
 I never shall behold thee more, -
 My long lost Mary Gray.

now, With the wreath of summer flowers, Up on her snowy brow.

A wreath of orange blossoms
 When next we met, she wore;
 Th'expression of her features
 Was more thoughtful than before;
 And standing by her side was one
 Who strove, and not in vain,
 To soothe her, leaving that dear home
 She ne'er might view again.
 I saw her but a moment,
 Yet, methinks I see her now
 With the wreath of orange blossoms
 Upon her snowy brow.

And once again I see that brow,
 No bridal wreath is there,
 The widow's sombre cap conceals
 Her once luxuriant hair;
 She weeps in silent solitude,
 And there is no one near
 To press her hand within his own,
 And wipe away a tear;
 I see her broken hearted!
 Yet, methinks I see her now
 In the pride of youth and beauty,
 With a garland on her brow.

 had nae been gone but a year and a day, When my father brake his arm and our Cow was stole a-way; My mither she fell sick and Jamie at the sea, And auld Robin Gray came a court-*tr*ing to me.

My father cou'd nae wark, and my mither cou'd nae spin,
 I toiled day and night, but their bread I cou'd nae win,
 Auld Robin fed 'em baith and wi' tears in his eye,
 Said Jeany for their sake, O pray marry me:
 My heart it said nae And I look'd for Jamie back,
 But the wind it blew hard and his Ship was a wrack!
 His Ship was a wrack, why did nae Jenny die,
 And why was she spar'd to cry wae is me.

My father urged me sair, but my mither did nae speak,
 But she look'd in my face, till my heart was like to break:
 Sae they gied him my hand, tho' my heart was in the sea,
 And auld Robin Gray was gudeman to me:
 I had nae been a wife, but weeks only four,
 When sitting sae mournfully, out my aim door;
 I saw my Jamie's wraith, for I cou'd nae think it he,
 Till he said I'm come hame, love, to marry thee.

Sair, sair did we greet, and mickle did we say,
 We took but one ae kiss, and we tore oursels away;
 I wish I were dead, but I'm nae like to die,
 O why was I born to say wae's me!
 I gang like a ghaist, and I canna like to spin,
 I dare nae think o' Jamie for that would be a sin;
 But I'll do my best agude wife to be,
 For auld Robin Gray, is very kind to me.
